

Fly Tying Workshop

February 26, 2005

Pequest Trout Hatchery & Natural Resource Education
Center

Oxford, NJ

9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

This workshop is part of the Beyond BOW workshop series sponsored by the Division of Fish and Wildlife. These workshops are designed primarily to provide a welcoming environment in which to learn outdoor skills. Anyone over 18 years of age may participate.

Have you always wanted to learn to tie your own flies for your fly fishing adventures? Wondering whether to use a dry fly, wet fly, nymphs, streamers or terrestrials? If so, this is a great opportunity to get started.

This workshop will consist of a morning seminar introducing the equipment and materials used in fly tying, types of flies and tying techniques and an afternoon of tying flies with the help of volunteer instructors. This workshop is designed for beginners. All materials will be provided and you may keep the flies that you tie.

The cost for the day is $40.00, which includes lunch and morning refreshments.

Registrations must be received by February 4, 2005. If you need to cancel, you will receive a full refund if you cancel before February 16, 2005. After that date, no refunds are available. You may send a substitute. Questions? E-mail Linda Buono at linda.buono@dep.state.nj.us or call at (908) 735-6826.

An e-mail confirmation will be sent when your registration is received.

____ Enclosed is a check for $40.00 made payable to Div. of Fish & Wildlife.
